

"Where There's A Will There's A WAY"

Is an old and a very true saying, and in nothing does it apply with more force than in the matter of saving money. Everybody Should save some part of his earnings, as it is not what one earns but what he saves that makes wealth. Start a savings account this month with

MISSOURI FLATS

Will Fliess went to Roy to get casing for his well.

Elmer Evans and son Roy went to Dawson Tuesday on a business trip.

Mrs. Rose Eaton, of Eldon, Mo., is visiting her son Ross Eaton.

Bazil and Forest Proctor have been very busy putting up hay the past week.

Jim McMurdo has quit the flats. He has gone to Springer where he has an interest in a second hand store. We are very sorry to lose Jim as he certainly is not a second hand man but that is his business now so we wish him the very best of success.

Miss Opal Evans went to Abbott, Wednesday and was accompanied home by prospector Charles A. Mitke of Dawson. He has been prospecting near Abbott for the past two weeks.

Arthur Miller is sowing wheat this week.

Mr. Lowell Seright was badly burned on the hand and arm caused by the explosion of a gasoline tank on a well drill.

Missouri Boulevard

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Black are the proud parents of a baby boy, born Oct. 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Lampton, were dinner guests at Mr. Steven Hudson's Sunday.

Mr. Schonestead has been putting up prairie the past week and has up several large stacks.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Evans were callers at C. C. Harper's Monday evening.

Mr. Ross Eaton completed a new two room residence on his claim last week.

Mr. Frank Seright and family have moved on their claim.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Harper were callers at Mr. and Mrs. Joe Black's Sunday afternoon.

Farmers in this vicinity are very busy caring for their feed, beans, potatoes etc, which they have raised this, the first year on their claims, while we have not been as prosperous as some who have had the old ground to cultivate, yet there is no room for complaint, and perhaps next year the energetic farmers of "Missouri Boulevard" will be able to boast of success. Several acres have been sown to wheat which is looking fine at this writing.

Pleasant View

Most of the crops in this vicinity are matured.

J. L. Hays is stacking millet this week.

Mrs. Will King was a Roy visitor Saturday.

E. W. Paxton, transacted business in Roy Saturday.

Miss Ollie Mitchell is visiting her brother in Dawson this week.

The fair at Pleasant View was well attended. The products were looked at by the farmers with a smiling face.

R. W. Mitchell and son Ray left Monday for Springer and Cimarron, where Mr. Mitchell will transact business this week.

Otis Hoskins left for Dawson Monday.

School began Monday at Pleasant View with Miss Grace Collins as teacher.

Too Literal.

"Do you ever think, George, dear," said she, and her voice was soft and low, as befitting the perfect beauty of the night—"do you ever think how closely true happiness is allied with tears?"

"I don't believe I ever do," admitted George; "but I will if you like."

"Yes," she went on, gazing up into his face. "When one is truly and wholly happy, George, dear, there is but little to divide laughter from tears."

"Well, that's a fact," assented George dear, "but I never thought of it before. After all, there's nothing but the nose."—Ideas.
